

Our manufacturing plants are varied geographically. Accordingly, we are able to ensure excellent pricing, superior quality and risk minimization due to economies of scale. Major plants have been well established and have been supplying the market for almost 20 years meeting high quality needs of reputed customers such as Unilever, Marks & Spencer, Sainsbury, Tesco, Kraft Food, Foster Clark to name a few.

Our factories use hi-tech Rotogravure Printing Presses as well as Flexographic. We have Solvent base lamination and Water based Lamination as well as Hotmelt / Wax coating and Heat Seal Lacquering. We have HD, PP and PE extrusion capabilities and high speed conversion to a range of bag styles and various other products supporting a number of industries. e.g. Food & Beverage including: chips, biscuits, confectionary, cookies, rice, spices, tea, coffee, sugar, pasta, dates, flour, yoghurt (lids), butter / margarine, bubble gum, fruit juices and beverages, milk powder, frozen foods, meat, and cheese. House Hold Products, including: detergent powder, soaps pet food, cat litter, potting soil, etc.

Our capacity in the area of injection molding and thermoforming provides crates, pails, pallets and containers in a wide range of products both standard and specific to customer specification.

We enjoy mutually supporting relationships with our key suppliers who partner with us to lift the benchmark of packaging consumer appeal. As a result our customers consider Packit Industrial Packaging a critical resource in their value chain.

Key personnel within Packit Industrial Packaging have extensive experience and Management Expertise in the Packaging Industry and have been active within the packaging industry globally. Senior management have participated in establishing the Plastics Institute of Queensland and in particular, training processes.